Saarland! There are not so many places in this universe that can really burn into your mind this way. Saarbrücken and Saarschleife and also Saarlouis or even Saarburg. All of these wonderful spots are connected by the Saar, which flows silently through green forests, hills, lush meadows and countless monuments of industrial heritage all over. That is what Saarland is about.

But the whole exciting region of Saar Lor Lux is waiting to be explored. It does not matter if you like biking, wandering or walking your dog. The Saar and its broad surroundings has it all. On the verge of Germany, there is even a regular service of the Saarbahn going along the Saar to France. This shortish train is run by SaarVV.

But our Saarland offers definitely more to it. Saarbrücken is a great place for culture and nightlife: Saarspektakel is an event not to be missed. In addition, Saarland is known for its strange food, for instance Dibbellabbes. And the people near the Saar brighten your stay in Saarbrücken as well.

God bless our Saarland!

But this land is also perfect for running a business. The best example might be Sairstahl based in Völklingen. There are also some skilled banking institutions, such as Bank Eins Saar or the local Toto lottery.

Saarland is quite famous around the world. Saarland's grilling method using a tripod and a disk has become well known. The dialect of Saarland has made it to shirts and cups. The region is worldwide renowned for its education too. Smart and agile students of Saarland University are one of the best. So visit this heaven on Earth as soon as possible, come to Saarbrücken.
